

Mrs. Herbert Borden

Former Clara Booth

Mrs. Clara (Booth)

Borden, 87, of 201 Lepes Road, Somerset, widow of Herbert A. Borden, died Saturday after a long illness.

Born in England, daughter of the late Thomas and the late Mary (Chadwick) Booth, she lived here most of her life, and had been a resident of Somerset for the past 15 years.

Mrs. Borden was one of the oldest living members of St. Mark's Episcopal Church of this city. She was a bookkeeper for the former J.O. Neil Hardware store for over 20 years before retiring in 1953.

She leaves a son, James F. Borden of Somerset; eight grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, a nephew and two nieces.

Arrangements are by the Waring-Ashton Suburban Home, 189 Gardners Neck Road, Swansea.

DIED

BORDEN (Booth)

Passed on in Swansea, Mass. August 19, 1978.
Clara (Booth) Borden.
Widow of Herbert A. Borden. Mother of James F. Borden. In her 88th year. Residence, 201 Lepes Road, Somerset. Funeral services Tuesday at 11 a.m. in Waring Ashton's Suburban Home, 189 Gardners Neck Road at the suburban crossroads. (north of Rt. 6 intersection). SWANSEA. Relatives and friends are invited. Visiting hours Monday from 7 to 9 p.m. Lighted parking area adjacent to the sheltered main entrance of the funeral home. Interment in Oak Grove Cemetery.